Event Recap: North American Phalanx: Monmouth County's Most Famous Commune

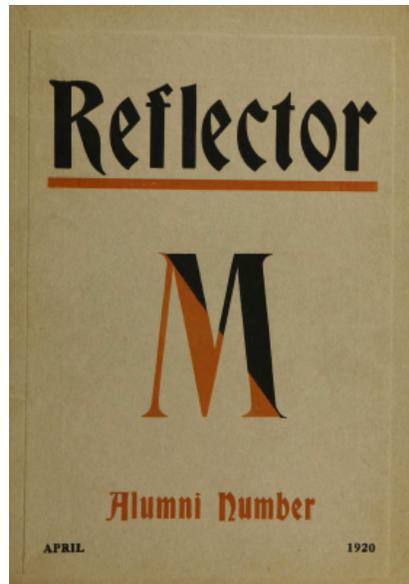

The Middletown Township Historical Society hosted Jayme Sokolow, Ph.D. last month. Mr. Sokolow is the author of the definitive study on this interesting commune that was located near the Colts Neck/Lincroft border. His presentation covered its entire history and examined its place in historical context. We thank him very much for his work and for sharing it with us.

If you would like to watch a recording of the presentation, please visit our YouTube channel.

Yearbook Digitization is Underway!

As promised, we have begun scanning the yearbooks and student publications of Middletown Township High School (also known as Leonardo High School). We will begin to make them freely available in the coming months via our website. The books go back to 1920 and are an interesting read, even if you do not have ancestors appearing in them.

We thank the Investors Bank Foundation for financial support, and also all who have donated yearbooks to us throughout the years.

Middletown Land Development Map

If you are curious about when/why/how your housing development or local park was constructed, take a look at our interactive map! Just click on a shaded area to read the history and see the images. The entries are color-coded so you can see when the various pieces of land were developed. Please note that the map is best viewed on computer or tablet.

Given Middletown's size, this map is a work in progress, so check back in the future if you don't yet see an entry for the land you are interested in. Our goal is to fill the entire map. If you'd like to contribute any entries, please let us know.

Trivia Time

This Month's Question:

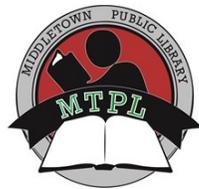

Who, in a proverbial “second act” as an active member in the Middletown historical community in the latter half of Twentieth Century, had earlier been a performer of note?

Answer will be supplied in next month's newsletter!

Answer to Last Month's Question:

Charles W. Lyon who bought “Overlook Farm,” previously owned by Samuel Riker (now, much altered and expanded as the Navesink County Club), was married to a daughter of John J. Raskob who built the Empire State Building.
